

Picture News

16th April 2018

What's going on this week?

Facebook, which is the largest social media platform in the world with around 2 billion users, has announced that nearly all of its users' private information has been shared without their permission. The creator of Facebook, Mark Zuckerberg has been asked to testify and explain the situation by our Prime Minister Theresa May.

Things to talk about at home...

What do you think are the good things that have come from social media networks like Facebook and what do you think are the downfalls?

What age do you think children should be allowed to have a social media account and why?

What information do we think is acceptable to share somewhere public and what information do you think we should we never share online?

Adults in your home may remember a time before social media, can they tell you what this was like?

Please note any interesting thoughts or comments below.