

British Values

29th November – 5th December 2021

Mutual Respect

The Munduruku are indigenous people, who live in parts of Brazil. Their life is different from ours but we understand and respect that.

29th November 2021

UN Rights of a Child

All children have the right to use their own language, culture and religion, even if it is not shared by most people in the country where they live.

